

IN ELEGANT RIPOSTE TO TRUMP'S TRAVEL ORDER, MOMA INSTALLS WORKS BY ARTISTS FROM BANNED MUSLIM COUNTRIES

BY Andrew Russeth POSTED 02/03/17 2:31 PM

Complete the placard below with the missing prepositions:

This work is ____ an artist ____ a nation whose citizens are being denied entry into the United States, according ____ a presidential executive order issued ____ January 27, 2017. This is one of several such artworks ____ the Museum's collection installed throughout the fifth-floor galleries to affirm the ideals ____ welcome and freedom as vital to this Museum, as they are to the United States.

Vocabulary

- a) A lot of people think boxing should be banned.
- b) There were about a dozen people at the party.
- c) Travel broadens your mind.
- d) Mr. Mitchell became the curator of the Bodleian library in 1892.
- e) Only a handful of people came to the meeting.
- f) The canon of medicine was published in 1025.
- g) Anne stuck (stick) a picture of her boyfriend on the wall.
- h) Many of these workers will be displaced (displacement) by modern technology.
- i) They are seeking to change the rules.

Match the underlined words with their definitions:

- 1) () Legal or formal prohibition
- 2) () The authentic works of a writer/ artist
- 3) () To increase or make something increase and include more things or people:
- 4) () To try to do, get or find something.
- 5) () To become joined to something or to make something become joined to something else
- 6) () twelve, or a group of twelve/ a lot (informal)
- 7) () To make someone or something leave their usual place or position
- 8) () A small quantity or number
- 9) () one who has the superintendence of something/ in charge of a museum, or other place of exhibit